DEATHS.

—Dr. James A. Creason, aged 46 years, died Tuesday night at the home of his mother, Mrs. Lou J. Combs, near Jacksonville, this county, from pneumonia. Dr. Creason had been a successful practitioner for a number of years in this county, and was popular with a large circle of friends. He was a member of the Bourbon County Medical Society and well liked by the members of his profession throughout the county.

Funeral services were held from the residence yesterday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, conducted by Rev. T. C. Stackhouse, of Lexington. Burial at Jacksonville cemetery. The pall bearers were: Dr. F. M. Faries, Dr. J. S. Wallingford, Dr. Wm. Kenney, Dr. C. G. Daugherty, Dr. C. M. Clifford and Dr. Chas. Barclay.

—Mrs. Eliza M. Greenleaf died at her home in Gallatin, Tenn., Feb. 8. She was born in Paris, Ky., in 1819, and spent all her early life here, moving to Tennessee forty years ago. She leaves one daughter, Mrs. Grace Sindle, of Gallatin, and one grandson, and two infant great-grand-daughters, and two nephews, James T. Jones, of Nevada, Mo., and John S. Jones, of Paris, and two nieces, Mrs. Cynthia Wright and Miss Martha A. Jones, of Paris.

—Master Phil Nippert, aged 11 years, died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Nippert, at Arlington Heights, O., Tuesday morning, of peritonitis. The news was quite a shock to his grandfather, Mr. Phil Nippert, and many friends that he had made here during frequent visits. He was an unusually bright lad, standing high in his class in the High School at Arlington Heights.

Much sympathy is felt in this community for the parents of the deceased, for here both were reared and have hosts of friends who weep with them in this hour of sadness and trial. A happy family circle is broken, only to be reunited in time to come in God's own way. It is a promise from one who never fails to keep His promises. The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away; blessed be the name of the Lord. Let your faith endure, fond parents, and all will be well.

Th/ grandfather, Mr. Phil Nippert, Sr., left Tuesday afternoon to attend the funeral, which took place yesterday afternoon. Burial at Cincinnati.

—After a lingering illness of several months, Mr. D. F. Frazee, one of the most prominent business men of Lexington, died at his home on North Broadway, in that city, yesterday morning about 11:30 o'clock.

Mr. Frazee was sixty-one years of age and leaves besides his wife, a brother, who lives in Mason county. Mr. Frazee was born and raised in Mason county. He was engaged in farming until his removal to Lexington some seventeen years ago.

High School Orchestra Benefit.

Owing to the inclement weather a small but enthusiastic audience greeted the performers at the concert Tuesday evening, Feb. 16, by Miss Ettavieve Foote and Miss Esther Margolen for the benefit of the Paris High School orchestra. Every number on the program was artistically rendered and heartily applauded by the audience.

The first number by the school orchestra, under the leadership of Miss Margolen, showed splendid training. The piano solo by Miss Foote and her accompaniments during the evening showed what a thoroughly musical genius this young lady is. Miss Margolen's solos were beautifully rendered as usual in her pleasing manner. The brass quartette by Messrs. Swearingen, Foote, Johnson and Cheatham was much appreciated and what artistic musicians these men are. Miss Woolstein's singing is always enjoyed.

The vocal selection by Mrs. Davis and Miss Hill were enthusiastically endorsed and showed how the public appreciates their singing. The vocal solo by Mr. Kerslake, assisted by the Philharmonic Quartette, whose beautiful voices harmonized so completely with his, was beautifully rendered and left the audience longing for more. Mr. Foote's euphonium solo was a great treat, and his full mellow tones were beautiful.

Mr. Morehead's vocal selections, three in number, were thoroughly enjoyed by Mr. Morehead is certainly an artist in his line. The program closed with another selection by the High School Orchestra. Altogether this concert was the greatest treat in a musical way that Paris has had for some time.

The company is one of those controlled by Dixon & Tweedale, of New York. Mr. Bell found that the Guardian had gone under several days ago, and he wrote a hot letter to the insurance department of Pennsylvania calling them to time for not notifying the Kentucky authorities sooner.

Bond Stewart, Police Judge of Jellico, was arrested and placed in jail at Williamsburg on a unique charge. The Lincoln Farm.

After a varied and peripatetic career as a traveling curiosity, including a sojourn in Brooklyn and in Central Park, New York, the logs of the historic cabin in which Lincoln was born one hundred years ago were sent to Louisville and stored in a warehouse in that city. From thence Feb. 2, by order of the Lincoln Farm Association, they were transported in a locked baggage-car to the nearest station to the old Lincoln farm in Larue county, Ky., near Hodgenville. Since that time workmen have been at work rebuilding the cabin on the exact spot on which it stood one hundred years ago and in putting the farm of one hundred acres in repair.

The Lincoln homestead has long been the shrine of scattered American pilgrims, but the farm itself was suffered to lapse into a neglected state. The big spring at which young Abe Lincoln drank still bubbles forth from beneath the roots of a live-oak tree which probably was only a sapling in Lincoln's boyhood. While the spring itself is left just as it has been for a hundred years, a stone arch has been erected over it which will insure its preservation in its original shape for years to come.

America has not always been careful to preserve the homes of her statesmen and Presidents, but it is gratifying to know that those of the two greatest, Washington and Lincoln, are now safe, and both illustrate as nothing else can the possibilities of American institutions.

What Reunited the Democracy.

[From New York World.]

Commenting on the World's assertion that the Democratic party is united again and in better condition than it has been since 1892, our neighbor, the Tribune facetiously inquires:

"Under whose leadership were these gains in voting strength made? Who stilled the old factional feuds? Who united the party in 1908 and put in better condition than it has been in since 1892? Who assured it the happy prospect of being in better condition two years from now than it is today? Mr. Bryan was the candidate of the Democratic party for President last year. Was he, in the World's opinion, the party's real leader?"

Mr. Bryan was unquestionably the real leader of the Democratic party in the 1908 campaign; but much of the credit for reuniting the Democracy belongs to Mr. Roosevelt.

His violence, his vituperation, his jingoism, his cowboy administration, his government by denunciation, his usurpations and his assumption of autocratic power were convincing proof of the need of a strong, virile Opposition. Democrats who had hesitated in principle to follow Mr. Bryan in former campaigns subordinated their former antipathies to what they deemed a great public necessity. For example, all of the former members of Mr. Cleveland's Cabinet, we believe, who were still living supported Mr. Bryan and again voted for the Democratic electors.

Rooseveltism did more than any other one thing to reunite the Democratic party; for it again demonstrated the danger of allowing Republican institutions to be made the football of one-man government.

Lincoln's Warning.

"What constitutes the bulwark of our own liberty and independence. It is not our frowning battlement, our bristling sea coasts, our arm and our navy. These are not our reliance against tyranny. All of those may be turned against us without making us weaker for the struggle. Our reliance is in the love of liberty which God has planted in us. Our defense is in the love of liberty which God has planted in us. Our defense is in the spirit which prizes liberty as the heritage of all men, in all lands every where. Destroy this spirit and you have planted the seeds of despotism at your own doors. Familiarize yourselves with the chains of bondage and you prepare your own limbs to wear them. Accustomed to trample on the rights of others, you have lost the genius of your own independence and become the fit subjects of the first cunning tyrant who rises among you."

What the Farmer Really Needs.

Co-operation among farmers, "a new kind of schools," "social and intellectual aspirations of country people," good roads, farmers' wives "whose prime function it is to bear and rear a sufficient number of healthy children," and better sanitation, favorite topics on which Mr. Roosevelt again enlarges in his message on Country Life, are none of them reforms to be effected by act of Congress. In his incidental reference to a parcels post Mr. Roosevelt comes nearer the mark, but although he is in his eighth year as President nothing has yet been done. What the farmer needs most is that the excessive commodities which he must buy shall be reduced. Mr. Roosevelt leaves office after all these years with the reputation of a turbulent agitator against abuses, but the power of the trusts remain unbroken, the inequities of Dingleyism remain in full force and the railroads are arbitrarily raising their rates both in farmer's products and farmers' supplies.

Friendly Tip for Gov. Cox.

In the Bowling Green Messenger, Editor Ed. O. Leigh gives Lieut. Gov. W. H. Cox the following friendly tip on the pardoning power:

A cynic has said that a bachelor is a man who looks before he leaps, and then doesn't leap. The same philosophy should apply to a temporary Governor. The regular nand makes enough mistakes, so the Lieutenant Governor will please take advice from a personal friend who has watched such things for years, and close down the pardon mill when he again becomes the chief engineer of the State government.

That our American forests abound in plants which possess the most valuable medicinal virtues is abundantly attested by scores of the most eminent medical writers and teachers. Even the untamed Indians had discovered the usefulness of many native plants before the advent of the white race. This information, imparted freely to the whites, led the latter to continue investigations until today we have a rich assortment of most valuable American medicinal roots.

Dr. Pierce believes that our American forests abound in most valuable medicinal roots for the cure of most obstinate and fatal diseases. If we would properly investigate them, and in confirmation of this conviction, he points with pride to the almost marvelous cures effected by his "Golden Medical Discovery," which has proven itself to be the most efficient stomach tonic, liver invigorator, heart tonic and regulator, and blood cleanser known to medical science. Dyspepsia, or indigestion, torpid liver, functional and even valvular and other affections of the heart yield to its curative action. The reason why it cures these and many other affections, is clearly shown in a little book of extracts from the standard medical works which is mailed free to any address by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., to all sending request for the same.

Not less marvelous, in the unparalleled cures it is constantly making of woman's many peculiar affections, weaknesses and distressing discharges, is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, as is amply attested by thousands of published testimonials contributed by grateful patients who have been cured by it of catarrhal pelvic diseases, painful periods, irregularities, prolapsus and other disorders caused by weakness, derangement of uterus and kindred affections, often after many other advertised medicines, and physicians had failed.

Both the above mentioned medicines are wholly made up from the glyceric extracts of native medicinal roots. The processes employed in their manufacture were original with Dr. Pierce, and they are carried on by skilled chemists and pharmacists with the aid of apparatus and appliances specially designed and built for this purpose. Both medicines are entirely free from alcohol and all other harmful, habit-forming drugs. A full list of their ingredients is printed on each bottle-wrapper.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative power that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Attachment Against Mayor Wood

An order of attachment was issued in the Circuit Court at Lexington against Clarence E. Woods, Mayor of Richmond, on complaint of his wife, Mrs. Mattie C. Woods, who alleges that he has not paid the $40 a month alimony which he agreed to pay her pending her suit for divorce. A similar order was issued last Monday and made returnable Friday, but was marked "not found," and the new one, which carried the power of arrest, was issued. Mayor Woods and Mrs. Woods have not lived together for several years, she making her home in Lexington, and several months ago she instituted suit for divorce, he agreeing to pay her $40 a month until final action was taken. This is the first time an order of attachment has ever been issued by the Fayette Circuit Court for non-payment of alimony.

The Crime of Idleness.

Idleness means trouble for anyone. It's the same with a lazy liver. It causes constipation, headache, jaundice, sallow complexion, pimples and blotches, loss of appetite, nausea, but Dr. King's New Life Pills soon banish liver troubles and build up your health. 25c at Oberdorfer's drug store.

Bad Climate for Furniture.

China is a bad place for furniture. In the summer months it is so damp that furniture put together with glue falls apart and drawers stick, while in the dry months furniture goes to the other extreme and often exhibits cracks half an inch or more in width.

How to Judge Tobacco.

On no point is the average smoker so ill-informed as that of judging a cigar, he will hold it up to his nose, unlighted, sniff at the wrapper with a critical air, and deliver his verdict in a self-satisfied manner. This characteristic maneuver is always a source of amusement to any tobacco man who happens to observe it. There is only one way to ascertain the quality of a cigar and that is to smoke it. No expert will pass judgment on a cigar until he has lighted it and smoked it well down toward the middle. The first and most important point upon which he wastes his opinion is the "burn." Tobacco may have every other virtue, but if it does not hold the fire and burn evenly it is poor tobacco. Next in order of importance comes the aroma—the smoke must have a pleasing "smell," next comes the flavor—the smoke must be smooth and not "scratchy" or bitter. Then, there is the color—rich brown, indicating a ripe leaf, well cured and lastly, workmanship, good if the wrapper is put on smoothly and the "bunch" is made so that the cigar "draws" freely and is neither too hard or too spongy; bad if the reverse.—Ex.

How To Gain Flesh

Persons have been known to gain a pound a day by taking an ounce of Scott's Emulsion. It is strange, but it often happens.

Somehow the ounce produces the pound; it seems to start the digestive machinery going properly, so that the patient is able to digest and absorb his ordinary food which he could not do before, and that is the way the gain is made.

A certain amount of flesh is necessary for health; if you have not got it you can get it by taking —On Wednesday afternoon the C. W. B. M. of the Millersburg Christian church held an open session followed by a social in honor of their new pastor, Elder Gardner.

The meeting was presided over by Miss Leona Letton, President pro tem. The exercises were singing by the assembly; prayer by Miss Fannie Burroughs, Scripture reading and a solo by Miss B. T. Judy.

The object of the session as set forth by Miss Letton in her address was the Centennial celebration, and each member present contributed one dollar to the fund, and each one told in verse how the dollars were earned. Many of the contributions were witty and some were very amusing but not one of them confessed to having searched her husband's pockets while that worthy was asleep.

All the ladies of the societies of other churches were invited to be present and quite a crowd was in attendance. After the exercises were over everyone was presented to Elder Gardner and wife and all were served with a dainty and tempting lunch. It was a very pleasant affair and everyone seemed to thoroughly enjoy it.

After the conflict she wrote the first life of General Robert E. Lee, who was her intimate friend. Later she went to Paris, where she conducted a school. The funeral will take place in Baltimore today and the interment probably will be made there.

Full Investigation to Be Made.

Full and complete investigation of the penal institutions and the management of them by the Prison Commission is to be made at once, by request of the Prison Commission and the numerous charges that have been made against the prison management will be examined by M. H. Thatcher, State Inspector and Examiner.

The Prison Commission Wednesday called on Governor Willson and asked him to direct that the examination and investigation be made at once as they were tired of hearing criticism. Governor Willson told the commission that their request would be complied with.

The commission told Governor Willson that certain charges had been made by former employees of the commission and these charges had never been officially investigated. The commission said it courted a full investigation of all it had done and of the management of the penal institutions in the past and present.

In the statement which was addressed to the Governor, asking for the investigation, the commission gave a complete history of the Frankfort penitentiary and has some interesting facts to show. The penitentiary formerly cost the State about $100,000 a year but under the present management and system the penitentiaries have earned, over and above all expenses a total of $39,326.09 in the last year.

Famous Confederate Nurse Dead

News was received Wednesday of the death in Washington, D. C., of Miss Emily Virginia Mason, formerly of Lexington.

Miss Mason was of a famous Virginia family and won fame during the Civil War as a nurse of Confederate soldiers and ministered to Union soldiers at Libby Prison. She died Tuesday night aged ninety-four. Stephen Thompson Mason, first Governor elected in Michigan, was her brother and her father was General John Thompson Mason, first territorial Governor of that State.

Miss Mason, who was born in Lexington, Ky., was commissioned by President Davis, of the Confederacy, to organize hospital camps during the war. After the conflict she wrote the first life of General Robert E. Lee, who was her intimate friend. Later she went to Paris, where she conducted a school. The funeral will take place in Baltimore today and the interment probably will be made there.

THEATRICAL.

"THE MERRY WIDOW."

—At the Lexington Opera House Thursday and Friday and Friday matinee, Feb. 25 and 26, Mr. Henry W. Savage's magnificent production of "The Merry Widow" will be presented. It is admitted that Mr. Henry W. Savage, who is without doubt the foremost producer of opera, both light and grand in the English language, has the greatest success of his career in "The Merry Widow," the reigning operatic sensation of the world. The company numbers one hundred people, together with their own special orchestra of twenty-five skilled musicians, and a magnificent scenic and electrical equipment. The sale of seats for this engagement will open Tuesday morning, Feb. 23. The prices will be, lower floor $2.00, balcony first five rows $1.50, balcony of balcony $1.00, gallery 50c. All orders sent to Manager Scott for seats accompanied by remittance, will receive prompt attention.

State Treasury Nearly Empty.

General warrants on the State will not be paid for several months, at least, on account of a lack of funds in the State Treasury, and the State once more faces conditions similar to those which existed last summer, when only the most pressing claims were paid. The State paid yesterday to school teachers of the county schools $385,000, and will pay into court $70,000, the balance due for the construction of the new Capitol. This money is to be paid into court, where the affairs of the General Supply and Construction Company, contractors on the new Capitol, are being straightened out. This will leave in the treasury only $41,500. It is probable that this stringency will continue for some time, as there is no immediate prospect of relief by the payment into the State Treasury of money from the Sheriffs and other sources sufficient to more than meet the ordinary running expenses of the Government. Capt. Ed Farley, State Treasurer said he hoped that the stringency could be relieved within a few months.

Newspaper Men Indicted.

The Federal grand jury in Washington Wednesday returned indictments against the Press Publishing Company, of New York, and Joseph Pulitzer, Caleb M. Van Hamm and Robert H. Layman, editors, of that paper, and the owners of the Indianapolis News, Delvan Smith and Charles R. Williams, charging libel publications in connection with the purchase of the Panama Canal.

Small Pox Epidemic.

The small pox epidemic, which has been raging in a greater or less degree in Georgetown and Scott county for the past two months, has increased to such an extent within the last week as to become a matter of great concern there to the citizens generally.

Owing to the light form of the disease but little precaution has been exercised by the people there, which has caused the epidemic to spread to an alarming degree. While but little attention has been given the matter by the public, yet it is a well known fact that not only in Georgetown, but in a number of adjoining counties the disease has been giving the authorities much concern for several months.

This information is taken from the Georgetown News. People cannot be too careful for there have been three cases near this city recently. A family that had just returned from a visit to Georgetown.

Communication from Postmaster Earlywine.

Paris, Ky., Feb. 17, 1909.

To the Merchants of Main Street:

Since the inauguration of the locked pouch dispatched daily (including Sunday) to Cincinnati, via train No. 32, said mail leaving the Postoffice at 5:30 p. m. and including mail for Cincinnati, Covington, and all Northern, Western, Eastern, and most of the Southern States, with the exception of Georgia, there has been a great falling off of mail collected by the night city carrier, who leaves the postoffice at 8 p. m., and returns by 8:30, collecting mail from all boxes on Main street from and including the Windsor Hotel to and including the box at Eighth and Main.

It seems that most of the mail which was formerly collected by the night collection now leaves the post-office in time for the new closed pouch service to Cincinnati, whereby all above mentioned mail is advanced from 12 to 24 hours.

Consequently, unless there is some serious objection raised against the plan, permission will be obtained from the Postmaster General to have the night collection changed from 8:30 to 7:10 p. m. As the postal service belongs to and is for the benefit of the people, no action will be taken until March 1, 1909, in order to give any merchant whose business might be interfered with a chance to enter complaint, and if such complaint is made and reasonably sustained the change will not be made.

Very respectfully,
J. L. EARLYWINE, P. M.

BARCALO BEDS

DO NOT COME APART OR BREAK DOWN

If you want a bed that will last, that will always be solid and substantial, look to these points:

The corners or couplings—the castings on the posts—are what hold the bed "up," hold it together.

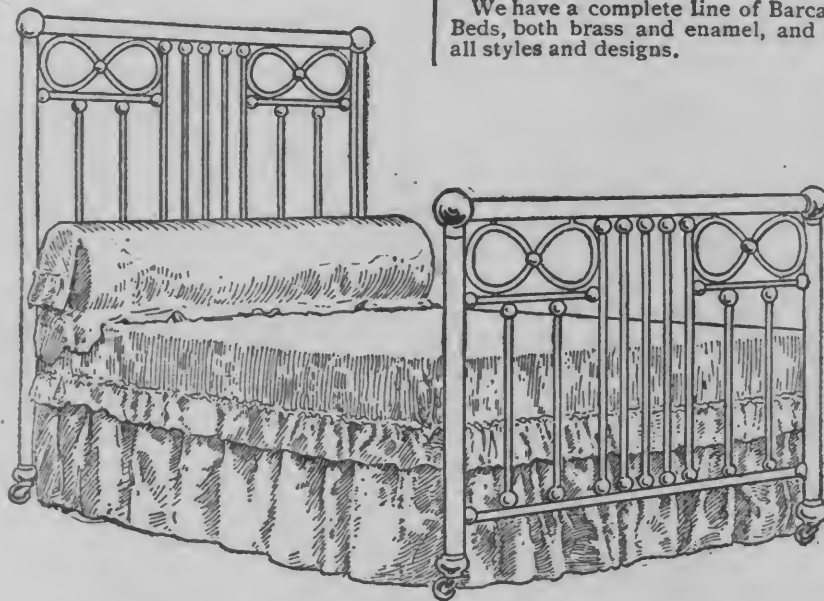

In Barcalo Beds, these castings are of unbreakable malleable iron. So they never break or give way. All connections are so solid that your bed can never come apart, never get shaky or rickety.

And so with all parts. The tubing in the pillars or posts, the cross-pieces, the rods and supports, all are strong and substantial. The parts which hold the casters are put in solidly, so they never get loose, never fall out.

In most other beds, the parts where the strain comes soon weaken.

Then, the finish of Barcalo Beds, whether brass or enamel, will not crack or peel. It is most durable because it is heavy-ply.

We have a complete line of Barcalo Beds, both brass and enamel, and in all styles and designs.

Allen's line; thence with Allen's line West 104 feet to a stake; thence South to Georgetown Alley 80 feet; thence East with said alley 194 feet to the beginning; being the same property conveyed to said Ann Collier by L. Bert Norton, &c., by deed recorded in deed book 80, page 25, Bourbon County Clerk's office.

W. G. McCLINTOCK,

"It Do Look Strange."
In a Maysville church the ladies have been requested to remove their big hats, and the charm of church-going with many of them has fled.—Ashland Independent.

The fair ones remove their headgear at the theatre, and to charm of theatre-going doesn't seem to be diminishing, at least in Maysville. By the way, the appearance of bad weather is enough to keep people from church, but a blizzard or a cyclone can't keep them away from the theatre. Ever notice that?—Maysville Public Ledger.

Got the Wrong Girl.
After being married a year, a young man named Hahn, living at Volosca, Dalmatia, discovered the other day that he had not married the girl he intended. When he proposed to her he mistook her for her twin sister, who so resembles her that they can scarcely be distinguished apart. He did not realize his error until he began calling her by her Christian name instead of by the terms of endearment he had hitherto used.

The String.
A wise old owl observed to us yesterday that the string tied around the finger to make you remember something was a useless device. "In fact," he continued—and this was the purpose of his remark—"In fact, it is a sort of a forget-me-knot."

Hens Hatch Fish.
Chinamen have a way of tricking hens, so that they assist in the hatching of fish. Fish eggs are carefully placed in an egg shell, which is then sealed and put under an unsuspecting hen. In a few days the spawn in the shell are then cast into a shallow pool, where the sunshine completes the work.

Fighting for Its Life.
Warning the liquor interests that the prohibition wave has reached gigantic proportions; T. H. Gilmore, President of the Model License League, Wednesday called on liquor men throughout the country to organize for a united fight against the Anti-Saloon League. The writer sets forth that in the eighteen months six States have outlawed the liquor traffic and that six more States are doing so. "The saloon is fighting for its life in every State in the Union," he declared.

The best family safeguard is a reliable household medicine that will cure croup, coughs, colds, chills, sensations, running eyes and nose, sore throat and bronchial affections—that will keep the children safe against all contagious diseases.

Such a medicine is Boschee's German Syrup, which has a record of 35 years in the cure of consumption, catarrh and all lung and bronchial troubles.

The fame of German Syrup as a consumptive cure, since its purchase by Dr. Green from the niece of the famous Dr. Boschee, has extended to all parts of the earth. It has big sales everywhere.

Trouble in Carlisle.
The Nicholas Circuit Court has up for consideration an action of that county against the city of Carlisle, in which the county seeks an injunction against the city authorities to prevent the digging of a large fire cistern on Chestnut street in the rear of the public square.

In its petition the county alleges ownership to the public square and a strip twenty-five feet wide all around the square on the outside of the enclosure by adverse possession in 1817.

Taft Cabinet Complete.
A Washington telegram says: President-elect Taft has completed his Cabinet. Announcement was made that Senator Knox would accept the Secretaryship of State under the enabling act passed by Congress, but that at no time during his incumbency of that office would he accept an increase of salary even if Congress were to vote one.

Jacob M. Dickinson, of Chicago and Nashville, is to be Secretary of War, accredited to Tennessee. Judge Willis M. Vandeventer, of Wyoming, is to be Secretary of the Treasury. This was the last place filled by Mr. Taft and is subject to possible change between now and March 4.

The remainder of the Cabinet is to be as heretofore understood: Secretary of the Navy, George Von L. Meyer, of Massachusetts.

Secretary of the Interior, Richard A. Ballinger, of Washington.

Postmaster General, Frank H. Hitchcock, of Massachusetts.

Attorney General, George W. Wickersham, of New York.

Secretary of Commerce and Labor, Charles L. Nagel, of Missouri.

Secretary of Agriculture, James Wilson, of Iowa.

M. J. Winn, manager of the New Louisville Jockey Club has returned to Louisville after a two months' trip to Mexico. While there in connection with some wealthy and influential Mexicans Mr. Winn secured concessions from the Mexican Government for building four race tracks in that Republic. Several wealthy Americans are said to be interested in the venture. The first of these racetracks will be constructed at Juarez, just across the river from El Paso, at a cost of $200,000. This plant will begin operations in November.

The Flirting Girl.

The first question a man asks when he sees a girl flirting is whether she is respectable or not; it raises a doubt at once. This being the case no modest girl can afford to indulge in the pastime. When the down is brushed from a peach, its beauty is so marred that it can never be restored, and when a young girl throws lightly aside that sweet and modest reserve so becoming to a maiden, and which so elevates her and enables her to command the respect of all she loses the great charm and becomes rather cheap and common, to use no rash terms. Flirting may, to the giddy and thoughtless girl, be wonderfully amusing and she may get the idea that she's fascinating but it is a most degrading thing and she should be frowned upon by every young lady who has an ambition to become a worthy and charming young woman.

Boys Not Warming Up.

lie in the low, marshy bottoms of the Potomac, the breeding ground of malarial germs. These germs cause chills, fever and ague, biliousness, jaundice, lassitude, weakness and general debility and brings suffering or death to thousands yearly. But Electric Bitters never fail to destroy them and cure malaria troubles. "They are the best all-round tonic and cure for malaria I ever used," writes R. M. James, of Louellen, S. C. Peculiar Shifting of Sands.

French scientists are studying a peculiar movement of the sands along the northern coasts of France, Belgium and Holland. A fine sand originating on the coast of Normandy has been found as far away as Denmark.

Speaking of Knot Holes.

Talking about knot holes, Mike O'Toole stopped long enough to tell a good one about his little boy. Somebody had just said something about having three eyes.

"What would you do with the third eye if you had one, papa?" asked young O'Toole.

"I think I would put it in the back of my head so that I could see what you were doing when you were behind me," replied the father.

"I wouldn't," declared young O'Toole. "I would have it in the end of my thumb, so that I could stick it through a knot hole and see every move on the ball grounds free."

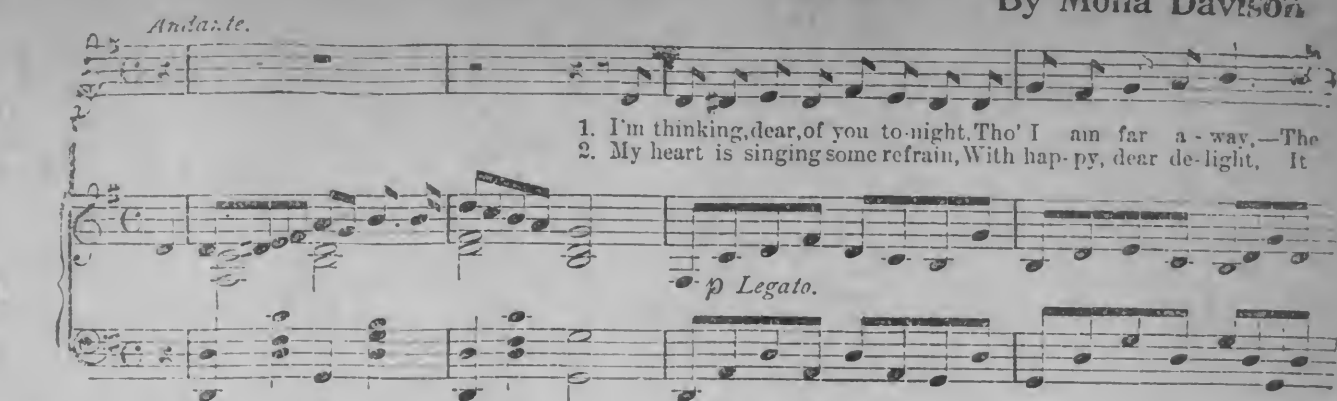

And "that reminds us" of the old man with the glass eye, who had been accustomed to looking at the ball games through a knot hole in the back fence. One day there was great excitement over the struggle, and the old man got his glass eye up to the knot hole by mistake, and waited three hours wondering why the game didn't begin.

The Cooper Trial.

Mrs. E. W. Carmack, wife of the former Senator, was the first witness in Nashville Tuesday in the trial of Col. Cooper and son and John D. Sharp, accused of slaying her husband. The widow was half carried to the witness stand. She moaned "Oh, God!" and for several minutes was unable to proceed when asked when she last saw her husband. Former State Treasurer Craig and Mrs. Charles H. Eastman also gave important testimony. Mrs. Eastman gave a dramatic recital of the tragedy and made a strong witness for the prosecution. Both sides are represented with the best attorneys and it will be a battle royal. The Coopers are by no means friendless in the trial. Their plea is self-defense.

Should Stay There.

Among twenty prisoners delivered by the Sheriff of Jefferson county to the Warden of the penitentiary at Frankfort was John Banks sent up for the seventh time, but each time under a different name. While serving under the name of George Smith he was pardoned by Governor Willson a short time since.

Experimental Hogs.

The "experimental hogs" as the swine reared at the Kentucky Experiment Station in Lexington by the various tests of food are called were sold Tuesday to James Price, a butcher, at a uniform price of 6 1-2 cents a pound. The hogs were from the best breeds and owing to the careful attention given to their feed they commanded a higher price than is paid for common swine. The hogs were divided into nine lots and fed rations made up of the following feeds: Lot 1, cornmeal and cottonseed meal; lot 2, cornmeal and oilmeal; lot 3, ground wheat; lot 4, cornmeal and alfalfa hay; lot 5, cornmeal; lot 6, cornmeal and Swift's digester tankage; lot 7, ground barley and cottonseed meal; lot 8, cornmeal and soy beans; lot 9, cornmeal and shipstuffs. The experiments carried on this fall and winter are duplicates of those carried on last year. A bulletin is soon to be issued on the results of these feeding tests.

Manicured Waiters.

One of the New York City hotels now requires waiters to be manicured, perhaps on the supposition that decorated thumbs will look better in the soup.

Barricaded in Arsenal.

Part of the mountains near Paint Rock, just across the line of Kentucky in Tennessee, are Jerry Simpson, Reuben West and others indicted by the federal grand jury at Richmond recently for conspiring against the government and the killing of Deputy Marshal Mullins at Stearns on last Christmas day.

This information was given out at Frankfort yesterday by Kirk Shelton, of Pulaski county, a Federal prisoner taken to the Frankfort jail by Deputy Marshal Massingale, of Somerset, who was arrested on a charge of assaulting Massingale along with Quarles Phelps and another man in the jail at Somerset. Shelton has been arrested, he says, 1,000 times, having served a sentence in the penitentiary, and was a fugitive from justice from the State and national government at the time of his arrest. He had been with the men at Paint Rock and had slipped into Somerset on an errand for them when they were arrested.

That Simpson and his followers will ever be arrested, Shelton does not believe, for, he says, they have equipped themselves with the latest improved arms, consisting of automatic revolvers, rapid-fire rifles and ammunition enough to last them through any reasonable siege. They have plenty of sentinels and followers on guard, and when they are moving around over the mountains they take plenty of men with them, so that they are prepared to fight the battle of their lives.

They have no idea of surrendering, and the only way they can be routed is with Gatling guns, for their position is almost inaccessible. Shelton says, too, that Simpson keeps plenty of whiskey on hand, and that he is well supplied with money so that there is no danger of the men deserting him and West.

Manhattan's Dense Population.

Manhattan is the most densely populated island in the world. It has a population of 99,150 persons to the square mile.

Derivation of "Poster."

Posters took their name from the fact that in former times the footways of London streets were separated from the drives by a line of posts, on which advertisements were displayed.

Honest Doubts.

Twenty-six Republicans voted against the bill to make Senator Knox eligible to the office of Secretary of State, while thirty-one Democrats voted for it. It is fair to assume that the 122 votes cast against the bill were all inspired by honest doubts as to its constitutionality. Solicitude for the constitution has been so infrequent in Washington during the past seven years that a non-partisan manifestation of it necessarily attracts attention.

Deed to Land Burned.

Mrs. Sarah Browne, of Hanley, Jessamine county, in a communication to an afternoon paper in Lexington, states that the land on which Lexington now stand was bought by her father's uncle, Simon Crow, of Virginia, in 1775, for $1.25 an acre. Mrs. Browne gives the following account of the transaction: "In or about the year 1775, my father's uncle, Simon Crow, of Virginia, came to Kentucky and purchased 1,500 acres of land where Lexington now stands, paying $1.25 per acre for it. He also paid the taxes on this land for fifteen years. After my father, Simon C. Thomas, served through the war of 1812, he made his last visit to Virginia to see his uncle, for whom he was named, he said to him: 'Sim, I will give you that land in Kentucky as I am too old to go there now to live.' My father neglected to take any steps to secure the land, the deed to this land was recorded at Frankfort, Ky., several years ago. I wrote to the clerk of the court at that place asking information about this deed. He wrote me that the old courthouse there had burned several years ago and a great many valuable papers lost."

Birthplace of Davis Sought.

The Jefferson Davis Memorial Association has decided to exercise its option and purchase the birthplace property of the President of the Confederacy, where Memorial Services will be held June 3d, the one hundred and first birthday of Jefferson Davis. The birthplace of Davis is near Abbeville, in Christian county. Invitations will be sent out to 18,000 Camps of United Confederate veterans and and 1,400 letters of Chapters of the Daughters of the Confederacy.

Purer Seed for Farmers.

That Kentucky farmers will plant seeds purer and freer from foreign matter this season than ever before in the history of agriculture in the State, is the opinion of State Entomologist H. Garman, who made such a report to the State Agricultural Department at Frankfort Wednesday. Analysis made by the State Entomologist show, he says, that the percentage of inert matter in Blue Grass and other seeds submitted to his department for tests this year average but eight, while in previous years the percentage of such substances in the seed ranged from fifteen to twenty. He believes that this improvement is fraught with much good for all departments of the movement for higher agriculture and more profitable farming.
